NOTES IN BRIEF

KONRAD WOLF 1925-1982

Konrad Wolf, President of the Academy of Arts of the GDR, died on March 7, 1982. Wolf, one of the most outstanding film directors in the GDR, is best known for the productions of the films "Goya", "I was nineteen", and "Solo Sunny". A successor to Wolf has been named: Robert Weimann, a well-known English and Comparative Literature scholar, will head the Academy.
