To order hard copies of the Field Journals, go to shop.symphonyintheflinthills.org.

The Field Journals are made possible in part with funding from the Fred C. and Mary R. Koch Foundation.

This is brought to you for free and open access by the Conferences at New Prairie Press. It has been accepted for inclusion in Symphony in the Flint Hills Field Journal by an authorized administrator of New Prairie Press. For more information, please contact cad@k-state.edu.

Today we celebrate with music and grateful hearts the genius of the tallgrass prairie, a particular assemblage of grass, soil, wind, and horizon called the Flint Hills.

Thank you to the hundreds of people who have accomplished together what none could do alone.

Sincere appreciation to all who worked so hard to make this program come together.

Without the cooperation of the authors, artists, illustrators, and designers, this journal would not have been possible. We hope that many will come to discover this special place and their knowledge and appreciation of the Flint Hills will continue to grow.

Home on the Range

WRITTEN BY: Brewster Higley

MUSIC BY: Daniel Kelley

Oh, give me a home where the buffalo roam
Where the deer and the antelope play
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day

How often at night when the heavens are bright
With the light from the glittering stars
Have I stood there amazed and asked as I gazed If their glory exceeds that of ours

Where the air is so pure, the zephyrs so free
The breezes so balmy and light
That I would not exchange my home on the range
For all of the cities so bright

Oh, I love those wild flow'rs in this dear land of ours
The curlew, I love to hear scream
And I love the white rocks and the antelope flocks
That graze on the mountaintops green

Refrain:

Home, home on the range
Where the deer and the antelope play
Where seldom is heard a discouraging word
And the skies are not cloudy all day
